Dear Colin,

Enclosed is an extract from some of my Timor Memories.

Of course, this sort of thing should have been done 50 years ago when every thing was fresh in the mind; now I wonder sometimes just how accurate my memory is, however, I have tried to narrate the incidents I am sure of, although I fear there must have been others that I have forgotten; so, as they say "errors and omissions excepted" you are welcome to use any or all of it as you see fit.

Yours sincerely
