Mr S. Brodie
PO Box 612
PROSERPINE QLD 4800

Dear Mr Brodie,

1. I refer to your letter received at this office on 16 December 1987. Acknowledgement card number B/860/87.
2. It has not been possible from the information given, for this office to identify the Gordon Douglas Wheatley of your inquiry as having served in the Australian Army. A further check of records will be made on your behalf if you can provide at least some of the following details:
 - a. His Army number.
 - b. His Army unit.
 - c. All given names.
 - d. Any other name under which he might have served.
 - e. The date and place of his birth.
 - f. Whether his service was full-time or part-time.
 - g. The period or periods of service.
 - h. The State of enlistment.
 - i. Details of next of kin on enlistment.
3. Unless some additional information can be supplied, I regret I can not assist you further with this part of your inquiry.

4. I wish to advise that a record of military service for the other six subjects of your inquiry is held by this office. However, regulations preclude the release of information without the written consent of the ex-members concerned. If the ex-members are deceased, I will require a statement from you to that effect.

5. If you can satisfy the above condition I will be pleased to reconsider your request.

Yours sincerely,

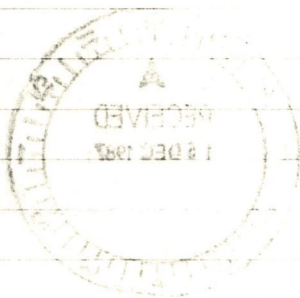

S.W. WILSON
Warrant Officer
for Commanding Officer
